Called Frank Slatinshek, Assistant Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, regarding a request from Chairman Moorhead, Foreign Operations and Government Information Subcommittee, House Government Operations Committee, for Agency witnesses to appear on 5 May to testify on security and classification problems. Slatinshek's off-the-cuff comment was (a) we cannot avoid appearing, (b) it would be helpful to buy time so that Chairman Nedzi and our oversight Subcommittee could cover this problem with us first, and (c) when we do appear before Moorhead we should not push for executive session, since an appearance in open session would provide justification for refusing to answer any detailed questions.

Received a call from Russ Blandford, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, who is still recuperating at home from his operation. Mr. Blandford asked if I could identify for him project Air War that is referred to in Nicholas Von Hoffman's articles in the Washington Post of 19 and 21 April. Blandford is also interested if the Agency is doing any work in this area. I told Blandford I would relay his request and be back in touch with him.

11. [redacted] George Carver, SAVA, and I met with 25X1A
Chairman Lucien Nedzi, Representative Melvin Price and Counsel Frank Slatinshek, Intelligence Subcommittee of House Armed Services, in response to their request for a briefing. I provided a short rundown of developments since the Director's briefing of the Committee on 8 February and Mr. Carver covered in some depth the current situation in Indochina. Characteristically Mr. Nedzi asked a number of thoughtful and probing questions and seemed satisfied with Mr. Carver's answers. See Memo for Record. in Briefing file 25X1A

[redacted] Talked to Mr. Frank Slatinshek, Acting Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, concerning the release of documents furnished to the President's commission (the Warren Commission) by the Central Intelligence Agency. I told him that in response to Representative Richard H. Ichord's (D. Mo.) request, as Chairman of the House Internal Security Committee, for certain documents, we plan to meet with him and review the documents with him. They will not be relinquished, however. In Mr. Slatinshek's opinion, this appears to him to be a workable solution, Messrs. Houston, OGC, [redacted] CI Staff, have been advised.
